

CULTUROLOGICAL APPROACH AS A BASIS FOR THE FORMATION OF FOREIGN LANGUAGE CULTURE IN THE PROCESS OF TEACHING KOREAN LANGUAGE

Introduction. The involvement of cultural components in teaching Korean language is absolutely necessary to achieve the main practical goal — the formation of the ability to communicate in the language being studied. Thus, learning to communicate in Korean language in the true sense of the word implies mastering socio-cultural knowledge and skills.

Full text