
ORGANIZATIONAL AND LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF PASTURE ANIMAL HUSBANDRY

Introduction. It is known that when growing agricultural products on pastures, in particular in the production of livestock products, farms turn to the market for a number of goods and services. However, the breadth of pastures and their remoteness from infrastructure create inconveniences for pastoralists in accessing services. These factors, in turn, affect the quality, volume and duration of service.

Full text