

REVIEW OF THE THEORETICAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL ECONOMIC FOUNDATIONS OF THE PROCESS OF ENCOURAGING LAND USE IN AGRICULTURE

Introduction. As a result of the land reform carried out in our country, has been ensured a fundamental change in the relations of ownership of land and other means of production. However, the existing mechanism of land use, ownership, disposal in a certain sense limits the possibilities of distribution, redistribution and promotion of land resources in the network. Therefore, as President Sh. Mirziyoyev noted, "... due to the lack of strict control in the field of sales, the unauthorized seizure and looting of irrigated lands by farmers and other officials, unfortunately, continues...". Therefore, as President Sh. Mirziyoyev noted, "... due to the lack of strict control in the field of sales, the unauthorized seizure and looting of irrigated lands by farmers and other officials, unfortunately, continues ..."

Full text